EXECUTIVES

ANDY MacPHAIL
President

A member of one of baseball's most honored and respected families, Andy MacPhail was hired by the Phillies as team president on June 29, 2015, following a three-year sabbatical from the game. After a three-month observation process, he officially assumed the position on October 14.

Philadelphia is the second organization that MacPhail has overseen as club president. He was president and CEO of the Chicago Cubs for 12 years, from September of 1994 through the 2006 season. MacPhail's tenure with the Cubs also included a two-year stint as general manager, from July of 2000 to July of 2002. Chicago made it to the postseason twice during his time with the club, including 2003, when the team won its first postseason series since 1908. Prior to MacPhail's arrival, the Cubs had reached the postseason only twice in the previous 50 seasons. As part of his duties with the Cubs, MacPhail oversaw the modernization and expansion of historic Wrigley Field. The Cubs had never drawn more than 2.4 million fans per year before MacPhail arrived, but drew over 3.0 million fans in each of his final three seasons with the club.

On June 20, 2007, MacPhail was named president of baseball operations for the Baltimore Orioles, a position he held through the 2011 season. In his role, he oversaw all aspects of major league, minor league and scouting operations for the ballclub, including the acquisitions of Chris Davis, Adam Jones, Manny Machado, J.J. Hardy and Chris Tillman, among others, who served as the core of the 2014 AL East Division champions. MacPhail had assisted Major League Baseball with a variety of projects for several months before he joined the Orioles organization.

Prior to joining the Cubs, he served as executive vice president and general manager of the Minnesota Twins for nine seasons. In MacPhail's nine seasons as the Twins' GM, Minnesota won two World Series championships, in 1987 and 1991. When he was named the GM in 1985, at age 32, he was the youngest person to hold that position in the majors. He was honored by The Sporting News as its 1991 Major League Executive of the Year and also earned United Press International's American League Executive of the Year award after building a team that went from last place to World Champions in one season.

MacPhail began his professional career in 1976 as business manager for the Cubs' Bradenton affiliate in the rookie-level Gulf Coast League. The following year he moved to Chicago as an assistant in the Cubs' park operations department. He joined the player development department a year later and eventually became assistant director of player development and scouting before leaving the Cubs in 1982 to become assistant general manager of the Houston Astros. He joined the Minnesota organization in August 1985 as vice president of player personnel and was promoted to executive vice president/general manager in November 1986.

His father, Lee MacPhail, was general manager of the Orioles from 1958 through 1965. Lee spent 45 years as a baseball executive and was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1998. As GM of the Orioles, he oversaw the team's rise from second division to contender in the early 1960s. He was also general manager of the New York Yankees, spent 10 seasons as the American League president and served as president of baseball's Player Relations Committee. Andy's grandfather, Larry MacPhail, was also elected to the Hall of Fame, in 1978. During his executive career, Larry helped pioneer night baseball as owner of the Cincinnati Reds in 1935, won a National League championship as owner of the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1941 and won the World Series as owner of the New York Yankees in 1947.

Andy became the third member of the family to win The Sporting News Executive of the Year Award when he was honored in 1991; Larry earned the honors in 1939 and Lee was named in 1966.

MacPhail also served on MLB's negotiating committees during the 2002 and 2006 seasons, helping to work out new collective bargaining agreements with the MLB Players Association. Those were the first two agreements reached without a work stoppage in more than 30 years of labor negotiations between MLB and the players' union. MacPhail is also one of five MLB executives on the 12-member committee to elect executives to the Hall of Fame and, during the 2010-11 offseason, was one of 14 baseball veterans named to MLB's Special Committee for On-Field Matters to review and examine all on-field related issues.

Born in Bronxville, N.Y., on April 5, 1953, MacPhail is a 1976 graduate of Dickinson College. He and his wife Lark reside in Philadelphia. Their sons, William and Andrew, are the fourth generation of MacPhails to work in Major League Baseball.

MICHAEL STILES

Executive Vice President, Chief Operating Officer

In April of 2001, Michael Stiles was hired by the Phillies as vice president for administration and operations. In that capacity, Stiles was responsible for the general administration of the Phillies front office as well as for overseeing ballpark and game day operations. In February of 2015, he was promoted to the position of executive vice president and chief operating officer, spearheading all business operations and supervising the general administration of the club.

As an attorney since 1971, Stiles has held significant positions in public service for almost 30 years. From 1993 until 2001, he served as the United States Attorney for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, supervising an office of 125 lawyers and 105 support personnel. As U.S. Attorney, Stiles was responsible for the prosecution of all federal crimes within the nine-county, southeastern Pennsylvania region, which included successful prosecutions of organized crime members, police corruption, white collar fraud, civil rights violations, political corruption, and significant illegal drug organizations. He also was responsible for the litigation of all civil matters in which the federal government had an interest.

While U.S. Attorney, Stiles was appointed by Attorney General Janet Reno as chairperson of the Attorney General's Advisory Committee (AGAC), which is comprised of 15 United States Attorneys from around the country who meet regularly in Washington, D.C., to discuss with, and advise, the Attorney General on matters of importance to the Justice Department. At the conclusion of his term as chairperson of the AGAC, Attorney General Reno appointed Stiles to supervise the investigation of the August 1992 incident at Ruby Ridge, Idaho, and its aftermath, which was completed in August of 1997.

Prior to being appointed by President Clinton to the position of U.S. Attorney, Stiles was an elected trial judge in the Common Pleas Court of Philadelphia for more than 10 years, presiding over hundreds of trials involving cases heard by juries and by the judge alone. For five years, from 1988 to 1993, Judge Stiles heard homicide cases exclusively, and also served as the homicide calendar judge, supervising the assignment of all murder trials in Philadelphia.

Prior to his judicial election, Stiles was a prosecutor in the Philadelphia District Attorney's Office for 12 years. He served in various trial and supervisory positions under District Attorneys Arlen Specter, F. Emmett Fitzpatrick and Edward G. Rendell. Before resigning to run for judicial office, he served as the First Assistant District Attorney of Philadelphia in 1982 and 1983.

Stiles obtained his undergraduate degree in political science from the University of Pennsylvania. He is a cum laude graduate from Villanova University School of Law, where he was a member of the Order of the Coif (a scholastic honor society) and articles editor of the Law Review. He has taught trial advocacy courses at Temple University School of Law, as well as undergraduate criminal justice courses at Temple. He has served as the chairperson of the Woodlynde School Board of Directors and on the Board of Directors of United Way of Southeastern Pennsylvania. Presently, he serves on the Board of Trustees for Thomas Jefferson University and on the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors of the Committee of Seventy, a government watchdog group.

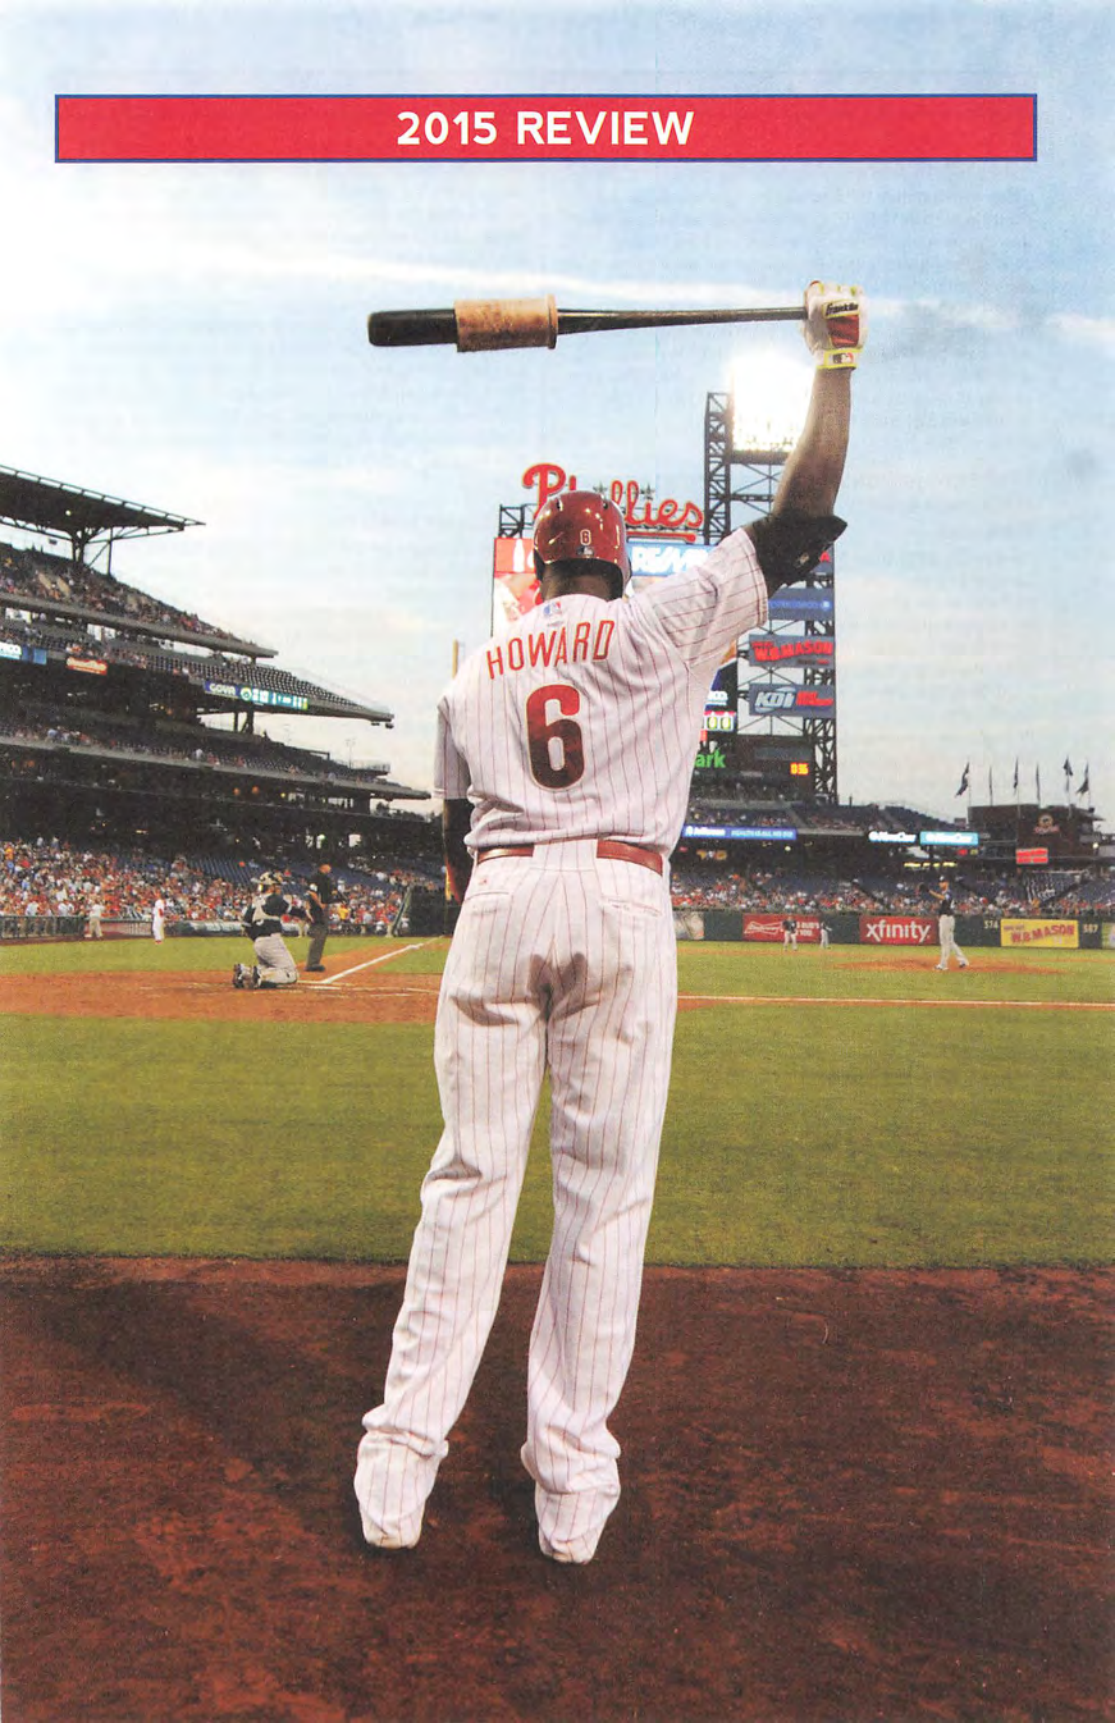
2015 REVIEW



2015 TEAM NOTES

2015 SEASON RECAP

Philadelphia had the worst record in the majors at 63-99 (.388), marking their third consecutive season under .500 (73-89 in both 2013 & 2014), their longest such streak since they did so in seven consecutive seasons from 1994 to 2000… The Phillies finished in 5th place in the NL East, 27.0 games behind the New York Mets (90-72), which was their largest division deficit at the end of a season since 2000 (30.0 games back)… Overall, the team batted .249 with 439 extra-base hits (272 2B, 37 3B, 130 HR) and 626 runs scored (3.86 RPG)… Phillies pitchers combined for a 4.69 ERA (29th among all ML clubs), which included a 5.23 ERA for the starters and 3.81 mark for the bullpen.

SANDBERG RESIGNS, MACKANIN NAMED MANAGER

On June 26, 2015, Ryne Sandberg resigned as manager of the Phillies… He had served in that capacity since August 16, 2013, amassing a 119-159 (.428) record in 278 games with Philadelphia… Following Sandberg's resignation, Pete Mackanin was named interim manager (53rd manager in Phillies history)… Mackanin was in the midst of his second season as the Phillies third base coach and sixth season, overall, as a coach with the club (previously served as bench coach for the team from 2009-12 under manager Charlie Manuel)… On September 22, the interim tag was removed and Mackanin received a one-year contract extension, taking him through the 2016 season with a club option for 2017… After taking over the reins, the Phillies went 37-51 under Mackanin, which included a 21-12 stretch from July 17 through August 23, the 4th-best record in MLB during that span… 2015 marked Mackanin's third stint as a major league manager, having filled that role in an interim capacity in 2005 with the Pittsburgh Pirates (12-14) and 2007 with the Cincinnati Reds (41-39)… He is the 8th Phillies manager to have also played and coached for the team… Mackanin's overall ML managerial record stands at 90-104 entering the 2016 season.

FRONT OFFICE CHANGES

On June 29, 2015, the Phillies announced the hiring of longtime baseball executive Andy MacPhail to succeed Pat Gillick as president of the club at the conclusion of the 2015 season… He officially assumed the role on October 14, 2015, at which time he began overseeing the entire organization, both in its business and baseball operations… MacPhail, 62, previously served as president of baseball operations for the Baltimore Orioles from 2007-2011… During this time, he was responsible for all aspects of major league, minor league and scouting operations for the club … Prior to joining the Orioles, MacPhail spent 12 years with the Chicago Cubs as president and CEO (1994-2006), including 18 months as general manager… During his tenure in Chicago, the team reached the postseason twice… As general manager of the Minnesota Twins, MacPhail led the team to two World Series titles… MacPhail's grandfather, Larry, and his father, Lee, both of whom had extensive successful careers as baseball executives, were inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame… Additionally, on September 10, 2015, the Phillies announced they had elected not to extend the contract of SVP & GM Ruben Amaro Jr.… The club named Assistant GM Scott Proefrock as interim GM, a role he held for six weeks until former Angels Assistant GM Matt Klentak was hired as Vice President & GM on October 26, 2015.

HELLO, MY NAME IS…

Of the 25 players on the Phillies Opening Day roster, only 16 finished the season on the active roster… Overall, Philadelphia used 50 different players on their roster in 2015 (29 pitchers, 21 position players), tied for 13th-most in the majors… Philadelphia made four major trades during the season, sending closer Jonathan Papelbon to the Washington Nationals on July 28, left-handers Cole Hamels and Jake Diekman to the Texas Rangers on July 31, outfielder Ben Revere to the Toronto Blue Jays on July 31, and second baseman Chase Utley to the Los Angeles Dodgers on August 19… In those four deals, the Phillies acquired 10 prospects (C Jorge Alfaro, OFs Darnell Sweeney & Nick Williams, and RHPs Alec Asher, Jimmy Cordero, Jerad Eickhoff, Nick Pivetta, John Richy, Jake Thompson & Alberto Tirado) and one major league player (LHP Matt Harrison).

YOUTH MOVEMENT

Over the course of the 2015 season, 10 players made their major league debuts for Philadelphia – two position players (OF Odubel Herrera, OF Darnell Sweeney) and eight pitchers (LHP Elvis Araujo, RHP Alec Asher, RHP Jerad Eickhoff, RHP Severino Gonzalez, LHP Adam Morgan, RHP Colton Murray, RHP Aaron Nola, RHP Nefi Ogando)… That was the most in a single season for the Phillies since 1996 when they had 15 different players debut (courtesy: Elias Sports Bureau)… Additionally, Dalier Hinojosa made his ML debut in 2015 with the Red Sox (5/3 vs NYY) and Ken Roberts did so on the same day for Colorado (5/3 at SD)… Both were claimed off waivers by the Phillies… In all, 18 different rookies appeared in at least one game for Philadelphia in 2015 (13 pitchers, 5 position players)… Additionally, the Phillies had five different starting pitchers make their ML debuts last year, setting a new franchise record for a single season (Gonzalez on 4/28 at STL, Morgan on 6/21 vs STL, Nola on 7/21 vs TB, Eickhoff on 8/21 at MIA, Asher on 8/30 vs SD) … Eight Phillies rookies earned at least one win in 2015, matching the franchise record (1997).

2015 TEAM NOTES

HOLLYWOOD ENDING

In his final start in a Phillies uniform, Cole Hamels threw the 290th no-hitter in major league history, blanking the Chicago Cubs, 5-0, at Wrigley Field on July 25 (was the first player in ML history to be traded immediately after throwing a no-hitter)... Some notes on that memorable afternoon at the Friendly Confines:

- Third LHP in Phillies franchise history to throw a no-hitter (previous: Johnny Lush, 5/1/1906 at BKN; Terry Mulholland, 8/15/1990)
- First no-hitter against CHI since Sandy Koufax on 9/9/65, a span of 7,920 games
- First no-hitter at Wrigley Field since 9/2/72 (CHI's Milt Pappas)
- First no-hitter against CHI at Wrigley since 8/19/65 (CIN's Jim Maloney)
- Carlos Ruiz was Hamels' catcher in the game, marking his fourth career no-hitter; set an NL record and joined Jason Varitek as the only two catchers in MLB history to be on the receiving end of four no-hitters

A TALE OF TWO HALVES

Philadelphia finished the first half of the season with a major league-worst 62 losses (29-62, .319), their most before the All-Star break in franchise history... They improved dramatically in the second half, however, going 34-37 (.479) after the break (8th-best record in NL, T-18th in MLB)... The Phillies averaged just 3.38 runs per game in the first half, last in MLB, before averaging over a full run higher after the break (4.48), 12th-best among all major league clubs.

ROAD KILL

Philadelphia went 26-55 (.321) away from Citizens Bank Park in 2015, which was the 2nd-lowest road winning percentage in the majors (ATL, 25-56, .309) and the worst by a Phillies team since 1947 (24-54, .308)... The Phillies had the highest road ERA (5.09) of any MLB team, the worst road run differential (-128, 416-288), the 2nd-lowest runs per game average (3.56), and the fewest road series wins (5-19-2 in 26 road series; swept 9 times)... They did not earn their first road series win until June 22-24 at NYY (2-1)... Philadelphia also had an 0-8 road trip – at CIN (0-3), at PIT (0-3) and at BAL (0-2) -- which was their first winless road trip of eight or more games since their inaugural season in 1883... That year, they went 0-9 on a trip against the New York Giants (2 G), Boston Braves (3 G), Providence Grays (3 G), and Giants again (1 G) from August 11-24.

COMING THROUGH IN A PINCH

The Phillies led the majors in several pinch categories in 2015: home runs (10), extra-base hits (25), slugging percentage (.446) and total bases (103)... They also finished 2nd in pinch doubles (15) & OPS (.758), T-2nd in RBI (39), 4th in average (.251) and T-4th in hits (58)... Philadelphia's 10 pinch home runs were their most in a season since 1984 when they also finished with 10.

STARTING OFF ON THE WRONG FOOT

Phillies starting pitchers combined for a 5.23 ERA (519 ER, 892.2 IP) in 2015, the 2nd-highest of all major league starting staffs (1st: COL, 5.27) and the worst by Phillies starters since 1930 (6.15)... They finished last in the majors in starters wins (38), allowed the most hits (1,592), and ranked 29th in opponents AVG (.280), OBP (.341), SLG % (.445), OPS (.786), and HR allowed (191)... Philadelphia had 66 quality starts in 2015 (40.7%), the third fewest in MLB... From May 23 to June 20, Phillies starting pitchers went 25 consecutive games without a win, breaking the franchise record from 1961 (23 straight games)... However, Philadelphia's starters were able to end the year on a high note... From September 18 through the end of the season, Phillies starting pitchers posted the 3rd-best ERA among all major league staffs (2.58 ERA, 24 ER, 83.2 IP) with a 1.18 WHIP... During that period, they allowed 2 ER or fewer in 12 of their 15 starts, including three scoreless starts (Eickhoff 2, Nola 1).

PHILLIES TEAM HISTORY

Philadelphia, a city rich in history and tradition, has played an integral part in professional baseball's history.

The city had several teams of different nicknames as far back as the 1860s, including a team called the Athletics in the National Association, a league that folded in 1875. Several of the stronger teams, including the Athletics, formed the National League, as it is still known today. The other charter members were the Boston Red Caps, Chicago White Stockings, Cincinnati Red Stockings, St. Louis Brown Stockings, Hartford Dark Blues, New York Mutuals and Louisville Grays.

The very first National League game was played in Philadelphia on April 22, 1876, at 25th and Jefferson Streets. Boston won, 6-5, before an estimated crowd of 3,000.

Resting in seventh place with a 14-45 record, the Athletics couldn't make their final western trip because of insufficient funds. The team was immediately expelled from the league.

Philadelphia was without a National League franchise until 1883. Following the 1882 season, the Worcester (MA) Brown Stockings were disbanded. The NL wanted a team in Philadelphia so a franchise was awarded to Alfred J. Reach, a former player and Philadelphia sporting goods founder, and attorney Col. John I. Rogers.

Starting a ballclub from scratch, the new owners named the team "Phillies," because they wanted the club to be identified with the city of Philadelphia. The Phillies endure as the oldest, continuous, one-nickname, one-city franchise in all of professional sports, an extraordinary tradition.

Alfred Reach

FIRST PHILLIES GAME

The Phillies played their first game on May 1, 1883, losing to the Providence Grays, 4-3, at Recreation Park, at 24th and Columbia Avenues. The crowd was estimated at 1,200.

It was the start of a tradition in which 1,979 players have put on a Phillies uniform and over 142 million spectators have attended games in the city.

Since none of the players from the Worcester team were part of the sale, the first Phillies roster was made up of ex-minor league players and players from other NL teams. The team finished last, 17-81-1, and total attendance was a reported 55,992.

In 1887, the Phillies moved into a new "magnificent park" at Broad and Huntingdon Streets, which later became known as Baker Bowl (capacity 12,500). An estimated 20,000 fans jammed the park for the first game on April 30, a 19-10 win over the New York Giants.

Starting in 1901, the Phillies shared the Philadelphia baseball scene as the American League was formed. One of the eight AL teams was the Athletics, under manager Connie Mack. Initially, the A's were more successful and popular. A little more than a half-century later, the team was moved to Kansas City, leaving the Phillies as Philadelphia's lone major league ballclub.

Pat Moran

The Phillies' first championship came in 1915 when Pat Moran, a former reserve catcher with the Phillies, led them to the pennant in his first year as manager. Grover Cleveland Alexander, a 31-game winner, won the first World Series game against the Boston Red Sox, who then swept the next four games. Woodrow Wilson became the first President to throw out the first ball at a World Series game. The historic moment took place prior to Game 2, Oct. 9, 1915, in Philadelphia.

Alexander was one of three future Hall of Famers on the 1915 pennant-winners. Left-handed pitcher Eppa Rixey and shortstop Dave "Beauty" Bancroft were the others.

The A's, under the stability of one owner, the Shibe family and later Mack, continued to do well, winning back-to-back World Championships in 1929-30. The Phillies, meanwhile, struggled for years under numerous owners, but had a star in outfielder Chuck Klein. The future Hall of Famer began a brilliant career with the Phillies in 1928.

Baker Bowl, once a magnificent ballpark, began to deteriorate. Following 51 years in that park, the Phillies moved to Shibe Park, the home of the A's, on July 4, 1938. In 1953, Shibe Park was renamed Connie Mack Stadium in honor of the A's longtime manager. Following 11 eighth-place finishes in 23 seasons, the A's left town after the 1954 season. The Phillies continued to play their home games in Connie Mack Stadium through 1970.

CARPENTER ERA BEGINS

Perhaps the most significant move in Phillies history came when the Carpenter family of du Pont wealth in Wilmington, Del., bought the team on November 23, 1943, for an estimated $400,000.

In an effort to stimulate more interest in the club, Bob Carpenter Jr., the new president, announced a contest was being held to find a nickname for the Phillies. The name Blue Jays was chosen from among 623 suggestions.

Although it still maintained the official Phillies title, the club was known as the Blue Jays for the 1944 and 1945 seasons. The new name was used heavily during that time, but usage began to drop off in the following years and the Blue Jays name never appeared in the newspapers after 1947.

When Carpenter took over as president, he began to pour money into building a minor league system. The efforts paid off rather quickly when a young team nicknamed the Whiz Kids won the 1950 pennant. Dick Sisler hit a dramatic three-run homer in the 10th inning at Ebbets Field to sink the Brooklyn Dodgers, 4-1, on the last day of the season. Unfortunately, a world title eluded the Phillies as they were swept by the New York Yankees in four games. The Whiz Kids had two players that would eventually be enshrined in Cooperstown, pitcher Robin Roberts and outfielder Richie Ashburn.

Eddie Sawyer's young club was expected to be a force for a few years but a third-place tie in 1953 was the best they could do.

As early as that year, a new stadium in Philadelphia was envisioned by Mayor Richardson Dilworth. Fourteen years and many disagreements later, ground was broken for Veterans Stadium, which finally opened on April 10, 1971, with the Phillies defeating the Montreal Expos, 4-1.

PHILLIES TEAM HISTORY

Under the leadership of Ruly Carpenter, who replaced his dad as club president in 1972, and General Manager Paul Owens, the Phillies dominated the National League East in the mid-1970s. They won three consecutive division titles starting in 1976 but couldn't get over the hump until 1980, a year after they signed free agent Pete Rose.

Led by manager Dallas Green, the Phillies made it to the World Series that year by defeating the Houston Astros in a gut-wrenching National League Championship Series. Sisler's historic homer in 1950 was replaced as the greatest moment in Phillies history at precisely 11:29 p.m. on Tuesday, October 21, 1980, when Tug McGraw struck out Kansas City's Willie Wilson to give the franchise its first World Championship.

The powerful Phillies teams of that era were anchored by two future Hall of Famers, Steve Carlton, the first pitcher to win four Cy Young Awards, and third baseman Mike Schmidt, a three-time MVP.

CARPENTER FAMILY SELLS

The end of a different era occurred after the 1981 season. Citing escalating player salaries, the Carpenter family put the Phillies up for sale. Bill Giles, executive vice president under Ruly Carpenter, and five other partners purchased the team for $30 million.

In just the second year of this new ownership group, the Phillies won their fifth Eastern Division title in eight years. Adding two veterans, Tony Perez and Joe Morgan, to an experienced team created the nickname Wheeze Kids.

Owens, who went from the front office to manage the team in July, guided the Phillies to their fourth Fall Classic by eliminating the Los Angeles Dodgers in the 1983 NLCS. The Baltimore Orioles, however, won the World Series, 4-1.

The next time the Phillies found themselves in the playoffs was 1993, under manager Jim Fregosi. That club went from a last-place finish the previous year to the division title, leading the NL East for all but one day of the season.

As underdogs, the Phillies dumped the favored Atlanta Braves, 4-2, to make their third World Series appearance in the last 13 years. Fregosi joined Moran, Sawyer, Green and Owens as managers who led the Phillies to an NL pennant and a trip to the Fall Classic. However, a very entertaining World Series abruptly ended with Joe Carter's three-run homer, which gave the Toronto Blue Jays their second consecutive World Championship.

CITIZENS BANK PARK OPENS

Ten years later, the Phillies family said goodbye to Veterans Stadium through a season-long series of "Field of Memories" events, which culminated with an emotional closing ceremony on September 28, 2003, featuring dozens of current and former Phils. The following season, the Phillies moved into Citizens Bank Park, a state-of-the-art, grass and dirt ballpark. The outfield concourse was christened "Ashburn Alley," named after the Phillies' beloved Hall of Fame outfielder and broadcaster.

After four second-place finishes, the Phillies won the NL East in 2007, their first division title in 14 years. With Charlie Manuel at the helm, the Phillies overcame a seven-game deficit with 17 regular-season games left to play to edge the Mets on the last day of the season. However, they were swept in the first round of the playoffs by the Colorado Rockies.

The following year the Phillies cemented their place in history by winning their second World Championship. After defeating the Milwaukee Brewers in the Division Series and the Los Angeles Dodgers in the National League Championship Series, Brad Lidge's strikeout of Tampa Bay's Eric Hinske on October 29, 2008, started the biggest block party in the history of Philadelphia. Two days later, the parade down Broad Street was attended by an estimated 2 million fans. After a stop at Lincoln Financial Field, it culminated with an unforgettable on-field ceremony at Citizens Bank Park, where the Phillies were a perfect 7-0 in the playoffs.

In 2009, the Phillies made their second straight World Series appearance, a first in franchise history. It was the club's fifth appearance in the Fall Classic in 30 years, matching the Cardinals and Braves for the most in the NL during that period of time. The Yankees, who led all clubs with eight World Series appearances in the same time frame, defeated the Phillies, four games to two.

The Phillies recorded a franchise-record 102 victories in 2011 and for the second time in as many seasons, they led the majors in wins, a first in club history. That year also brought the team's run of consecutive division titles to five, tied with the Oakland Athletics for the third longest streak in the Divisional Era (since 1969) among all major league teams, trailing only the Yankees (9) and Braves (14).

Fan support at Citizens Bank Park has been strong since the ballpark opened in 2004. Through their first 10 seasons at the ballpark, the club drew better than three million fans eight different times, including the record-setting mark of 3,680,718 in 2011. Highlighting that run was a streak of 257 consecutive regular-season sellouts at Citizens Bank Park from July 7, 2009 to August 6, 2012.

From the 1950 pennant-winners to the great 1976-83 era to the recent 2007-11 dynasty, one theme has been common throughout: homegrown talent. Whether it was Richie Ashburn, Robin Roberts and Del Ennis or Mike Schmidt, Larry Bowa and Greg Luzinski or Chase Utley, Jimmy Rollins and Ryan Howard, the Phillies have largely had their greatest successes relying on their scouting and player development.

One other talented homegrown character is the Phillie Phanatic, who debuted on April 25, 1978. As with the baseball team, the Phanatic, too, is a Philadelphia tradition.

Named after the former National League president, the Warren C. Giles Trophy is given each year to the NL Champions. Since the start of division play in 1969, the Phillies have won the NL pennant five times (1980, 1983, 1993, 2008 and 2009).

POSTSEASON HISTORY

2010 NATIONAL LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

PHILLIES VS. CINCINNATI REDS

(Phillies win series, 3 games to 0)

Game 1 - October 6

In his postseason debut, Roy Halladay became the second pitcher in MLB history to throw a no-hitter in the playoffs in a 4-0 win over Cincinnati. Halladay narrowly missed throwing his second perfect game of the calendar year as he walked one batter, Jay Bruce, in the fifth inning. After taking a 1-0 lead in the first inning, the Phillies extended their lead in the second on an RBI single by Halladay and a two-run base hit by Shane Victorino. The win was the Phillies' seventh consecutive victory in Game 1 of a postseason series, tying the National League record.

Game 2 - October 8

Philadelphia took a 2-0 series lead in a wild, 7-4 victory at Citizens Bank Park. The series appeared to be heading to Cincinnati tied at one game apiece when the Reds took a 4-0 lead into the bottom of the fifth inning. The Phillies offense, however, responded and cut Cincinnati's lead to one (4-3) after six. In the seventh, Philadelphia plated three unearned runs to take the lead and the game. Reds outfielder Jay Bruce lost a fly ball hit by Jimmy Rollins in the lights with runners on first and second which allowed both runners to score. Five of the seven runs scored by the Phils were unearned and both teams combined to commit six errors in the game, which set a League Division Series single-game record.

Cole Hamels threw a five-hit shutout to beat the Reds, 2-0, at Great American Ball Park and give the Phillies their first-ever postseason series sweep. The Phils took a 1-0 lead in the first inning when they capitalized on a throwing error by Reds shortstop Orlando Cabrera. Chase Utley belted the club's first home run of the postseason off Cincinnati starter Johnny Cueto in the fifth to put the Phils ahead, 2-0. Hamels, who struck out nine, became the third pitcher in team history to throw a postseason shutout.

(Giants win series, 4 games to 2)

Game 1 - October 16

The highly anticipated clash between former Cy Young Award winners Roy Halladay and Tim Lincecum went to the Giants as they took Game 1 at Citizens Bank Park, 4-3. The Phillies managed three runs on six hits off Lincecum but were shut down by the back of San Francisco's bullpen.

Back-to-back doubles by Ryan Howard and Jayson Werth in the eighth tied the game, but the Giants rallied off Roy Oswalt, who entered in relief in the ninth, and won on pinch-hitter Juan Uribe's sacrifice fly.

The Phillies' postseason run came to an end in a 3-2 loss. With momentum and a sold-out crowd on their side, Philadelphia jumped out to a 2-0 lead in the first inning. However, the Giants tied it up in the top of the third and then used seven scoreless innings by their bullpen to stymie the Phils, who left 11 men on base and finished 2-for-11 with runners in scoring position. San Francisco took a 3-2 lead in the eighth on a solo homer by Juan Uribe off Ryan Madson and Giants closer Brian Wilson recorded the final five outs to end the Phils' chances for a third consecutive NL pennant.

PHILLIES VS. ST. LOUIS CARDINALS
(Cardinals win series, 3 games to 2)

Game 1 - October 1

The Phillies took the series lead with an 11-6 win at Citizens Bank Park. Cardinals starter Kyle Lohse kept the Phils' bats in check until they exploded for a five-run sixth inning highlighted by Ryan Howard's go-ahead three-run homer. After allowing three runs in the first inning, Phils starter Roy Halladay sat down the final 21 batters faced to earn the win.

Philadelphia held a 4-0 lead after two innings against Cardinals starter Chris Carpenter who pitched on three days' rest for the first time in his career. Despite a nine-strikeout performance, Cliff Lee could not silence St. Louis' bats as they rallied for a 5-4 victory that evened the series at one game apiece.

A 3-2 win at Busch Stadium gave the Phillies a 2-1 series lead. Pinch-hitter Ben Francisco's three-run home run off Jaime Garcia in the seventh were all the runs Philadelphia needed. Cole Hamels started for the Phils and threw 6.0 scoreless innings. Ryan Madson recorded a five-out save when he worked out of a bases-loaded jam in the eighth and pitched out of trouble in the ninth.

The Phillies came up short in a pitchers' duel between staff aces and former teammates Halladay and Carpenter in the series-deciding game. Back-to-back extra-base hits from the Cardinals' first two hitters of the night produced the game's only run. Carpenter, who did not allow a Phillies baserunner past first base after the fourth inning, threw a three-hit shutout and denied the Phils a fourth straight trip to the National League Championship Series.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Rob Manfred, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre-game ceremony at the World Series. Greg Luzinski received the award in 1978, Garry Maddox in 1986, and Jimmy Rollins shared the honor in 2014 with Paul Konerko. Other past winners include Jamie Moyer, Jim Thome, Curt Schilling, Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith, and Cal Ripken Jr.

BILL GILES AND LARRY ROJAS AWARDS

Bill Giles

Two awards were established in 1999 to honor minor league players who share the same attributes as the awards' namesakes: a love and respect for the game of baseball, an outstanding work ethic and pride in being a member of the Phillies organization.

Bill Giles climbed the baseball ladder from the minors to the majors, working in numerous executive capacities with the Astros and Phillies until getting a group together to purchase the Phillies in 1981. He was president and general partner until 1997 when he became chairman and then was named chairman emeritus in 2015.

Larry Rojas was born in Cuba and played minor league baseball with the Phillies. He also served as a minor league coach and manager, spring training coordinator, scout and liaison for the Hispanic players in the system before his death in 2007.

"Vuk" took great pride in wearing a baseball uniform and playing the game the right way. His dedication to the game and the Phillies was endless.

It also recognizes the scout's ability to judge not only a player's talent, but also his character and heart.

Over his distinguished career, which encompasses 61 years in baseball, including 45 with the Phillies, Green has served in almost every capacity in the game, including player, scout, manager, general manager and club executive. WALL OF FAME

The tradition of honoring alumni of both the Phillies and the Philadelphia Athletics began in 1978 at Veterans Stadium in a 200 Level display originally called the Philadelphia Baseball Hall of Fame. Former Phillies continue to be honored at Citizens Bank Park in the Wall of Fame display located in the Memory Lane section of Ashburn Alley. Toyota is the sponsor of Memory Lane and the Wall of Fame.

Phillies players, managers and coaches with four or more years of service are eligible.

With rare exception, all candidates must be retired for three years before they can be eligible for the 15-man ballot. Consideration is given to longevity, ability, character, and contributions to the Phillies and baseball, plus special achievements.

REMEMBERING THE A'S

From 1978 through the final year of the Vet, 2003, members of the A's were also selected yearly. The A's were a member of the American League in Philadelphia from 1901 through the 1954 season when the franchise was moved to Kansas City.

A total of 25 former A's were part of the Philadelphia Baseball Hall of Fame, starting with Connie Mack, their longtime manager/owner who was inducted posthumously in 1978.

A large statue of Connie Mack once stood at Connie Mack Stadium on the south side of Lehigh Avenue. During the 1971 inaugural season at Veterans Stadium, the Phillies relocated the statue to the corner of Broad Street and Pattison Avenue. The Phillies moved it again during the final construction stages of Citizens Bank Park in March of 2004.

Mack's statue is located on the west side of Citizens Bank Way. Names of the 25 A's players who were honored at the Vet's Hall of Fame display have been added to Mack's statue so that fans will forever remember the A's.

FORD C. FRICK AWARD

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually to a broadcaster for "major contributions to baseball." The award, named after the late broadcaster and National League President, has been presented annually since 1978. Each award recipient is presented with a certificate during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony and is recognized in the "Scribes & Mikemen" exhibit in the Library of the National Baseball Hall of Fame. Long-time Phillies broadcaster By Saam received the award in 1990 and was joined in 2002 by his former broadcast partner, Harry Kalas. Other former Phillies broadcasters to be honored include Chuck Thompson (1993) and Tim McCarver (2012).

The J.G.Taylor Spink Award, named after the founder of The Sporting News, has been voted upon annually by the Baseball Writers' Association of America since 1962 and honors a baseball writer (or writers) "for meritorious contributions to baseball writing." Charles Dryden, who wrote for The North American at the turn of the century, was honored in 1965 and legendary sportswriter Red Smith, who early in his career worked for The Philadelphia Record, won in 1976. Other winners include former Philadelphia Inquirer writers James Isaminger (1974) and Allen Lewis (1981), Ray Kelly of the Philadelphia Bulletin (1988), Bus Saidt from The Trentonian and Trenton Times (1992), Bill Conlin from the Philadelphia Daily News (2011) and Paul Hagen (2013), who wrote for the Daily News for 25 years before joining MLB.com.

TOM McCARTHY

Tom is in the ninth year of his second tour of duty with the Phillies doing television play-by-play. In his first stint with the club he spent five seasons (2001-05) as the host of the pre- and post-game radio shows, while also doing radio play-by-play. He also hosted his own weekday afternoon-drive show on ESPN Radio 920 AM, which concentrated on local sports. He spent the 2006-07 seasons as a radio broadcaster with the New York Mets on WFAN before returning to the Phillies in November of 2007.

A graduate of The College of New Jersey (BA degree in communications), Tom spent six seasons with the Trenton Thunder, the former double-A affiliate of the Boston Red Sox. He was hired as director of public and media relations in 1993 and promoted to assistant general manager in 1996, while also working as one of the team's broadcasters, doing play-by-play on radio and television for CN8.

After the 1999 season, Tom left the Thunder to pursue a full-time career in broadcasting, creating the first local-driven show on ESPN Radio 1680 AM. He also used to work national shows for ESPN Radio.

Tom has done extensive broadcasting for collegiate sports in his career. He currently does NFL games for CBS, baseball for FOX, basketball and college football play-by-play for CBS College Sports Network (formerly CSTV) and NFL and college basketball games for Westwood One, after three years of doing the NFL with Sports USA Radio. Previously, he worked as the radio voice of the Saint Joseph's University men's basketball team (2004-09) and the play-by-play voice for Rutgers University football (2001-03), as well as Princeton University football (1995-2000) and men's basketball (1995-2003).

He will always be most remembered by Phillies fans for his two-out, two-run pinch home run in Game 4 of the 2008 National League Championship Series at Dodger Stadium that gave the Phillies a 7-5 lead and eventual win.

After being signed by the Montreal Expos as an amateur free agent in 1989, Matt played for 12 major league teams in 13 different cities (Expos and Nationals), which is a major league record for position players, and finished his career with a .262 batting average, 265 home runs and 899 RBI in 1,895 games.

Following his playing days, Matt worked as an in-studio analyst for the New England Sports Network (NESN) and co-hosted programming on MLB Network Radio for Sirius/XM. PHILLIES BROADCASTERS

SCOTT FRANZKE

Scott made his Phillies debut in 2006, when he was named the pre- and post-game host for Phillies radio broadcasts and did radio play-by-play in the middle innings. In 2007, he took over as the main play-by-play commentator for Phillies radio broadcasts, working with Larry Andersen. The duo was honored at the Philadelphia A.I.R. (Achievement in Radio) Awards, winning for Best Live Sports Event Coverage in 2007 and 2008. In addition, Scott was the winner of the 2010 Pennsylvania Sportscaster of the Year Award, given by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association.

A graduate of Southern Methodist University (SMU) in 1994 with a degree in broadcast journalism, Scott began his radio career as a talk show host with Prime Sports Radio, a national all-sports radio network based in Dallas. He worked for two seasons as the part-time pre- and post-game host for his hometown Texas Rangers (1997-98) before becoming the voice of the Kane County Cougars, a single-A affiliate of the Florida Marlins (1999-2001). In 2000, Scott covered the Summer Olympics in Sydney, Australia for Sporting News Radio. He spent four years (2002-05) in his second stint with the Rangers as the full-time studio host of the pre- and post-game shows and fill-in play-by-play announcer, winning the 2003 Katie Award for Best Radio Play-by-Play Sportscast from the Press Club of Dallas.

Scott was born in Dallas, Texas. He lives in Philadelphia with his wife Lori, son Gus, twin daughters Loretta and June, and their dog Bird.

LARRY ANDERSEN

The 2016 season is Larry's 19th season in the booth serving as a color analyst for the Phillies' radio broadcasts.

Larry began his broadcast career with the Phillies in 1998. He had been offered a position on the Houston Astros' broadcast team in 1997 when Larry Dierker moved from the booth to become manager, but opted instead to become pitching coach for the Phillies' triple-A affiliate at Scranton/Wilkes-Barre. In 2008 he and his partner Scott Franzke won for Best Live Sports Event Coverage at the Philadelphia A.I.R. (Achievement in Radio) Awards, the second straight year they won that category.

A former relief pitcher who played 25 years of professional baseball, including 17 seasons in the major leagues with the Indians (1975-79), Mariners (1981-82), Phillies (1983-86; 93-94), Astros (1986-90), Red Sox (1990) and Padres (1991-92), Larry was 40-39 with 49 saves and a 3.15 ERA in 699 career games (1 start). In 1987, he pitched 101.2 innings, all in relief, and in 1989-90, he posted ERAs below 2.00 – 1.54 ERA in 1989 and 1.79 ERA in 1990.

Larry is famously known as being traded from the Astros to the Red Sox for Jeff Bagwell in August of 1990. He pitched in two World Series with the Phillies in 1983 and 1993 and in two League Championship Series, with Houston in 1986 and Boston in 1990. Larry holds the Phillies' club record for longest consecutive scoreless streak by a reliever (32.2 IP), set in 1984. It is also the third-longest among all Phillies pitchers, trailing Grover Alexander's 41.0 scoreless innings in 1911 and Cliff Lee's 34.0-inning streak in 2011.

After graduating from Interlake High School in Seattle, Wash., in 1971, he was drafted by the Cleveland Indians in the 7th round and made his major league debut with them in 1975. Following his playing career, Larry spent three seasons as a minor league pitching coach, first with double-A Reading (1995-96) and then Scranton (1997). He has served as a guest instructor at Phillies spring training the past three years.

Born in Portland, Ore., Larry has two daughters, Angie and Tania, and one son, Chase. He and his wife Kristi live in Philadelphia.

JIM JACKSON

Jim Jackson is in his 10th season hosting the pre- and post-game shows on the Phillies Radio Network. In 2010 he added some play-by-play responsibilities and other broadcast assignments. He is also known to local sports fans as the television voice of the Philadelphia Flyers hockey team, having spent the past 23 years as the club's play-by-play broadcaster, two years on radio and the last 21 on television.

An eight-time Mid-Atlantic Emmy Award winner for sports play-by-play, Jim joined the Flyers organization in 1993 after serving as the radio voice of the Utica Devils (American Hockey League) for six seasons. In all, he has been involved in hockey play-by-play for nearly three decades at various levels.

Jim has previous experience in baseball play-by-play. He was the radio voice of the Utica Blue Sox of the New York-Penn League from 1986-93 and spent the summer of 2005 broadcasting the Trenton Thunder in the Eastern League. In August of 2006, Jim was the television voice of the Cal Ripken World Series on the Outdoor Life Network. In addition, he has served as a part-time host on SportsRadio 94WIP, authored a book, Walking Together Forever: The Broad Street Bullies, Then and Now, and provided the call for college football, basketball and lacrosse during his career. Jim also won the 2011 Pennsylvania Sportscaster of the Year Award, given by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association.

Jim is a 1985 graduate of Syracuse University with a degree in broadcast journalism. He resides in Gloucester Township, N.J., with his wife Bernadette, daughter Deanna and son Johnny.

2016 MEDIA INFORMATION

BALLPARK ENTRANCE

All media should enter Citizens Bank Park at the Staff & Media Entrance located on Darien Street (east side of the ballpark).

CLUBHOUSES

Both clubhouses are on the Service Level (visiting, third base side; Phillies, first base side). The Service Level is one level below street level (Main Concourse). Shortly after entering the Staff & Media Entrance, there is a stairway on the right side that accesses the Service Level. Or, see ELEVATOR.

MEDIA INTERVIEW ROOM

The Media Interview Room is also on the Service Level located behind home plate between the two clubhouses. Press conferences, as well as the manager's post-game media conference, are held in this room.

PRESS BOX

The Press Box, including broadcast booths, Press Dining Room, Media Relations Workroom and library is located on the Hall of Fame Club Level behind home plate.

ELEVATOR

An elevator dedicated to the media is located behind home plate. After entering the ballpark at the Staff & Media Entrance, turn left on the Main Concourse and walk toward home plate. Look for the "Media Only" sign on the Main Concourse. This elevator will access the Service Level (clubhouses, Media Interview Room, field) and Press Box (Level 2).

STAIRWAY

A stairway is adjacent to the media elevator and can be used to access all levels.

FIELD ACCESS

Access to the field for all media is through a field level entrance adjacent to the visiting team's third base dugout. This runway can be accessed via a hallway located between the elevator and Media Interview Room on the Service Level. Media seeking to return to the Press Box during batting practice or any other time when the Phillies clubhouse is closed are required to use this entrance to return to the media elevator. The field and dugouts will be cleared of all non-uniformed personnel 45 minutes prior to game time. Phillies rules prohibit children (15 or under); MLB rules prohibit friends. We thank you for your cooperation.

Please note: Media are asked to avoid standing on the grass.

PHOTO WORKROOM

The Photo Workroom is located on the Service Level behind home plate in the hallway that leads to the third base field entrance. Still photographers have field level positions at the outfield end of both the third base and first base dugouts.

MEDIA RELATIONS WORKROOM

Located behind the broadcast booths is a Media Relations Workroom that contains a fax machine, copier and supplies, plus a workstation for the visiting PR representative. All media notes will be reproduced in this room pre-game. A complete baseball library providing numerous publications for research purposes is located adjacent to the Workroom. See a Baseball Communications representative for access to the Media Relations Workroom and library. Please keep in mind the Media Relations Workroom is to be used for reference purposes only.

CREDENTIALS

Working press credentials or Baseball Writers Association of America credentials are required in order to gain access to the ballpark and other locations (field, clubhouses, Media Interview Room, Press Box and Press Dining Room). Photographer credentials provide access to the field, Press Dining Room, Media Interview Room, Photo Workroom and field level photo positions.

LOST CREDENTIALS

Those members of the media who lose a Phillies credential will be asked to submit a $25 check to The Phillies, prior to being issued a new credential.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS

Both clubhouses open at 3:35 p.m. (for 7:05 p.m. games) in accordance with Major League Baseball regulations. The Phillies clubhouse is closed when the team is on the field taking batting practice. For day games, the clubhouse is also closed when the team is on the field taking batting practice and/or 45 minutes prior to game time. Media needing interviews when the clubhouse is not open should make arrangements with a Baseball Communications representative.

Members of the media are welcome when the clubhouses are open. Please keep in mind the clubhouse is open for media business purposes, not for lounging or socialization. Both teams appreciate your cooperation.

Cell phones: According to a Major League Baseball directive, members of the media must have cell phones turned off upon entering the clubhouse. Absolutely no transmitting (phone calls/texts/e-mails/social media updates) is allowed in the clubhouse.

MANAGER AVAILABILITY

The manager is available following every Phillies home game in the Media Interview Room. For 7:05 p.m. games, the manager is available in his office at 4:00 p.m. There is no formal pre-game availability on day games.

PRESS BOX SEATING

Some seats in the three-row Press Box are permanently assigned. Check the seating diagram posted daily in the Press Box area. Radio and TV media members occupy the first base end of the Press Box; print media the home plate end. Please keep in mind the Press Box is a working area, not a spectator location. Children and friends are prohibited.

2016 MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA DRESS CODE

In accordance with a MLB directive, media covering games and MLB events are asked to dress in an appropriate and professional manner that reflects their respect for their colleagues, the teams and the players they are covering. Clubhouses, dugouts, press boxes, interview rooms and the playing field are working areas, and the Phillies, as well as MLB, expect members of the media to adhere to a business casual dress code. In that regard, media members are requested to follow these guidelines:

- Flip-flops are not permitted in clubhouses.
- Jeans should be clean, neat and presentable (e.g., ripped jeans should be avoided)
- T-shirts bearing offensive, disrespectful or inappropriate messages are not permitted
- Clothing bearing MLB club logos should not be worn in the press area
- Clothing should be appropriate for a business casual work environment. The following are some non-exclusive examples of apparel that should be avoided:
  - ★ Sheer or see-through clothing
  - ★ Excessively short skirts, dresses or shorts (e.g., cut more than 3-4 inches above the knee)
  - ★ Tank tops, muscle shirts, one-shouldered or strapless shirts
  - ★ Clothing exposing bare midriffs or visible undergarments

We ask all members of the media to respect these guidelines. MLB will consider appropriate actions in those cases in which the guidelines are violated.

INTERNET/PHONE

Wireless internet is available throughout the press box area and in the photo workroom. There is an ample supply of complimentary high-speed ethernet lines available in the Press Box as well as in the Photo Workroom. If needed, ethernet cables are available to purchase on-site for $10 (cash only) at each home game. There is also an ample supply of pool phones available in the Press Box. If you would like to purchase your own dedicated private line in the Press Box or Photo Workroom, analog lines are available to purchase for an annual fee of $150 per line (restricted to credit card, collect, calling card, or 800 number calls).

PRESS DINING ROOM

Located behind the Press Box, the Press Dining Room opens one and a half hours prior to game time. Food will be served until 30 minutes after the start of the game. The meal price is $10. During the game and post-game, the beverage area will be open. Children and friends are prohibited.

SMOKING

By City of Philadelphia ordinance, smoking is only permitted in designated areas in the vicinity of the Third Base Gate and Left Field Gate.

- Phil the Can is the official "spokescan" for the Red Goes Green program. Presented by Waste Management, Phil is an interactive robot that speaks with fans and encourages them to dispose of their recyclable items in the appropriate ballpark containers.
- There are over 100 recyclable containers placed throughout the ballpark for fans to utilize in recycling efforts.

Once lineup cards have been exchanged, the Umpire-In-Chief shall have the sole authority to determine whether and when play shall be halted and whether and when play shall resume. He shall not call the game until at least 30 minutes after he has suspended play. He may continue the suspension as long as be believes there is any chance to resume play. The Crew Chief shall at all times try to complete a game. His authority to resume play following one or more suspensions of as much as 30 minutes each shall be absolute and he shall terminate a game only when there appears to be no possibility for completing it.

For series that begin on or after September 1, during the final series of the season between two clubs in the home ballpark of each club – even if the game has not yet begun – MLB's Executive VP of Baseball Operations (or his designee) shall be the sole authority as to whether or not a game shall be started because of unsuitable weather or the unfit condition of the playing field.

HOW TO FIGURE

ERA: Multiply earned runs by nine and divide the total by innings pitched.

Slugging Percentage: Divide total bases by the total times at bat (not including walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher or interference).

On-Base Percentage: Divide the on-base total (hits, walks, hit by pitcher, and interference) by total plate appearances (at-bats, walks, hit by pitcher and sacrifices).

Fielding Percentage: Divide the total putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

Winning Percentage: Divide the number of games won by the total games played.

Magic Number: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

PHILLIES IN THE COMMUNITY

Phillies Charities, Inc. is the charitable arm of the Phillies organization, serving Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware, as well as areas near the Phillies' minor league affiliates. Continued fan support enables fundraisers, including the Phantastic Auction, the Phillies Charities 50/50 Drawing, the Phillies Charities 5K and many memorabilia auctions, to contribute largely to a grant fund. Grants are awarded annually to primarily local organizations serving a wide variety of needs. In 2015 nearly $2 million in grants was distributed. The Greater Philadelphia Chapter of the ALS Association has been the Phillies' primary charity since 1984. In the 32 years since the partnership began, and 26 years of the Phillies Phestival, over $16 million has been raised to help fund patient services and research in the fight against ALS (also known as Lou Gehrig's disease). This year's Phestival will be held on June 9.

The Phillies are proud of the contributions that individual players make each year in the community. These include visits with patients, outreach to children's groups and events through their own foundations benefitting the Philadelphia community, as well as communities nationally and globally.

Cody Asche's T-shirt raises money to fight ALS.

- Cody Asche is an active supporter of the ALS Association. After meeting a family stricken by ALS and participating in the annual ALS Association banquet in 2014, Cody wanted to do more to raise funds and awareness for research. In 2015, he and his wife Angie designed a "Together We Fight" T-shirt to benefit the Greater Philadelphia Chapter of the ALS Association. The T-shirt can be purchased at the Majestic Clubhouse Store at Citizens Bank Park or at phillies.com. Cody has participated in several autograph signings at the Majestic Clubhouse Store for fans purchasing the T-shirt and led the Phillies Front Office Ice Bucket Challenge in August 2015. Cody and Angie also participated in the Greater Philadelphia Walk to Defeat ALS on October 30, 2015, which raised over $415,000.

- David Buchanan works with Kula Project, a charitable organization with a mission that invests in small family farms to create sustainable communities in underdeveloped countries. He has headlined fundraisers and traveled to Rwanda in past offseasons, most recently in October 2015, to meet the farmers, local staff and participants of the program. In 2013 David was honored with the annual Phillies Step Up Community Service Award, which acknowledges minor league players with the most volunteer service time.

Ryan Howard receiving the 2015 Phillies Roberto Clemente Award.

- Ryan Howard launched The Ryan Howard Big Piece Foundation in 2013 to help children who might not otherwise have athletic and educational opportunities. The foundation's first initiative was the Ryan Howard Reading Challenge, a literacy-based program to engage students in reading. In 2015 Ryan and his wife Krystle released Little Rhino, a baseball-themed children's book series, and are making plans for a Little Rhino Read-Along event this spring at Citizens Bank Park for students in kindergarten through fifth grade. In an effort to support youth baseball and education in Philadelphia for years to come, Ryan recently made a significant monetary commitment towards the construction of the Phillies MLB Urban Youth Academy, which includes plans for an indoor baseball/softball facility as well as elements of his foundation's signature reading program in the educational curriculum. The academy will feature two locations – outdoor fields at FDR Park and an indoor baseball/softball facility adjacent to the Marian Anderson Recreation Center at 17th and Fitzwater Streets. An active supporter of the Philadelphia Police Athletic League (PAL) for many years, Ryan has hosted fundraisers for the renovation of PAL youth baseball fields and has met with hundreds of PAL kids as part of his Howard's Sluggers program. He was honored with the Phillies Community Service Award and was the club's MLB Roberto Clemente Award nominee in 2012 and 2015.

- Charlie Morton honored military families in Western Pennsylvania for several years while with the Pittsburgh Pirates organization. He plans to provide game tickets for active military, veterans and their families in Philadelphia this season at Citizens Bank Park.

- Carlos Ruiz supports Philadelphia Futures by headlining the organization's annual Get in the Game bowling tournament for the past six years. Additionally, he hosts Chooch's Chicos, a charitable ticket program which benefits local Latino children and youth groups. Carlos meets with each participant before games and provides game tickets, concessions and T-shirts.

PHILLIES IN THE COMMUNITY

The players' wives are committed to giving back and lend their time and efforts to support local charities. Each year, Phillies Wives serve on the board of Phillies Charities, Inc. and work together to represent the Phillies on charitable projects or fundraisers. The group meets with ALS patients each year and participates in the Phillies Phestival. Over the past 10 years, the Phillies Wives have raised approximately $275,000 for the Pennsylvania SPCA through their Save a Pet at the Park event and multiple pet calendars. The group renovated a baby play area and young mothers' lounge at a local shelter, Covenant House Pennsylvania, in 2013. The wives have also worked with the Phillies front office to purchase and deliver new backpacks filled with school supplies to children residing at the People's Emergency Center and Valley Youth House. The Phillies Wives additionally spearhead miscellaneous fundraisers each year such as cookbooks, autographed mystery baseball sales, memorabilia auctions and charitable ticket programs. Past initiatives include those supporting charities such as Women Against Abuse, Domestic Abuse Project of the Delaware Valley, ConKerr Cancer, The Food Trust, Mothers United Through Tragedy, Prevent Child Abuse Pennsylvania and Camp No Worries.

The Phillies host a variety of educational and literacy programs for the local community. Since 2004, Be a Phanatic About Reading, presented by Comcast, has encouraged over 850,000 children to read for a minimum of 15 minutes a day to improve literacy and comprehension skills. Through this program, the Phanatic visits nearly 25 schools excelling in reading each academic year and honors top readers during the annual Be a Phanatic About Reading literacy night at the ballpark. In addition, the Phanatic makes countless appearances in the community each year. Run through schools, after-school programs and summer camps, Phillies Phitness presented by NovaCare Rehabilitation encourages children in kindergarten through high school to take steps toward a healthy future through exercise and smart food choices. Since the program was introduced in the summer of 2011, over 125,000 children have already started on their fitness path. Phillies Phundamentals is an after-school/summer camp program that makes learning fun by using the theme of baseball to teach academic skills. Started by the club in January 2001 and run in nearly 20 inner-city recreation centers, Phillies Phundamentals educates over 2,500 children. For the past 14 years, the work of area educators has been highlighted through Teacher Appreciation Night and the Teacher All-Stars program, presented by GDF SUEZ, which recognizes area teachers.

Also acting as community ambassadors for the Phillies both on and off the field are the Phillies Ballgirls, comprised of educated, athletic and energetic young women. In 2015 they made over 150 community appearances, including hosting an annual youth softball clinic for over 200 female athletes aged 7-15. The Jr. RBI Leagues sponsored by Citizens Bank and RBI Leagues sponsored by Turkey Hill Dairy provide youth in the Greater Philadelphia area the opportunity to play organized baseball and softball by teaching game rules as well as instilling the values of teamwork and sportsmanship. Combined, the programs, which provide uniforms and equipment, engage more than 8,000 boys and girls annually, making it one of the largest Jr. RBI/RBI League programs in the country.

The 2015 Phillies 13U RBI All-Star team.

Phillies fans are incredibly supportive of the work being done in the community and these charitable efforts are made possible by their generosity. Over the course of the 2015 season, fans took part in gate collections held at Citizens Bank Park to benefit local nonprofits. Fans donated food to benefit Philabundance during the annual Phans Feeding Families campaign, new and gently used books to benefit local literacy organizations, baseball equipment for Pitch In For Baseball, and toys and blankets for the animals of the Pennsylvania SPCA. Fans were also a big part of putting smiles on the faces of countless children by donating toys that were distributed during the holidays to the Police Athletic League and People's Emergency Center.

MLB URBAN YOUTH ACADEMY

Major League Baseball, the Philadelphia Phillies and the City of Philadelphia officially opened the Phillies MLB Urban Youth Academy during a special ceremony on Thursday, June 4, 2015 at the Academy's brand-new baseball field at FDR Park in South Philadelphia. The Phillies' MLB Urban Youth Academy is the only existing multi-site Urban Youth Academy, with both outdoor and indoor facilities, to provide free, year-round instruction to the more than 8,000 Phillies Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities (RBI) players in Philadelphia. All MLB Urban Youth Academies also provide educational programming, such as SAT/ACT preparation and tutoring, and each Academy's goal is to graduate 100 percent of the youth it serves.

PHILLIE PHANATIC

HT: 6-6; WT: 300
AGE: Made debut on April 25, 1978
BIRTHPLACE: Galapagos Islands

Named after the team's fanatical fans, the Phanatic was created out of one of the weekly staff meetings of the Phillies marketing department after the 1977 season. From that humble beginning, the beloved mascot made it all the way to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, N.Y., where in 2002 it became part of a permanent exhibit. The Phanatic was also recognized by Forbes Magazine as the #1 sports mascot in both 2008 and 2011 and ranked baseball's best mascot by Good Morning America in 2015.

Often featured on sports highlight shows, the Phanatic moved into prime time with appearances on the NBC television show 30 Rock and ABC's The Goldbergs. Last year he also made a memorable visit to the set of ESPN's College GameDay. In December 2011, the Phanatic made a successful journey back to his homeland of the Galapagos Islands, where he explored the islands and interacted with the native wildlife.

The original person in the costume was David Raymond, a graduate of Newark High School (DE) and the University of Delaware (1979), BA degree in physical education. In his 16 years, Raymond missed just eight games.

Tom Burgoyne, the current Phanatic, actually began his fanatical career as Raymond's back-up in 1989 and then joined the Phillies promotional staff in 1990. He has made worldwide appearances with Major League Baseball International, including Japan (1997, 1998 and 2002) and Australia (1997 and 1999). Tom has written two Phillies books and 14 children's books and developed a reading program (Be A Phanatic About Reading) that encourages kids to read every day.

The 50-year-old is a graduate of St. Joseph's Preparatory School and Drexel University (1988), where he earned a BS degree in marketing. He and his wife Jennifer have three sons, Andrew, Daniel and Matthew.

SPRING TRAINING INFORMATION

BRIGHT HOUSE FIELD

"If there is a gold standard among Grapefruit League ballparks, it is Clearwater's Bright House Field. It is the standard by which older ballparks are evaluated and new ballparks are planned. It's not the biggest or the most historic, but on virtually every level it's the nicest, and it works very well on a functional level: you never, ever feel crushed or crowded, even when you're queuing up for parking or an entrance to the ballpark. We really can't think of a better time at a spring training game than to spend the afternoon at Bright House Field." – springtrainingonline.com

Fans certainly have enjoyed spending the afternoon at Bright House Field since it first opened 12 years ago. As the Phillies entered their 13th spring at their Clearwater home, total attendance stood at 1,524,917.

Of that total, 113,037 were there in the first year, easily breaking the spring record (94,811 in 1994) at Jack Russell Memorial Stadium where the Phillies trained starting in 1955. Attendance for the first year there was a meager 16,832.

The Phillies first moved to Clearwater in 1947, replacing the Cleveland Indians who moved to Tucson, Ariz. Athletic Field, with a seating capacity of 3,000, was their first home. The previous spring, the Phillies trained in Miami Beach, Fla. Because of World War II travel restrictions the Phillies trained close to home in 1943 (Hershey, Pa.) and 1944-45 (Wilmington, Del.).

Only the Detroit Tigers have been in a Florida location longer, holding camp in Lakeland since 1934. The Tigers clobbered the Phillies, 13-1, in their first Clearwater game, March 11, 1947, before a paid crowd of 1,766 and lost the first game at Jack Russell Stadium, 4-2, on March 10, 1955, before 4,209 fans.

In 2004, the Phillies also opened a new home in Philadelphia, Citizens Bank Park. No other club ever unveiled two ballparks in the same year.
